District Attorney Tells Them He Is Handicapped by Lack of Detectives.

Police dtectives who had heard that twen:y-five more women were to be shipped to Texas yesterday to prey upon soldiers along the border went to the foot of West Houston street, where the Mallery liner San Jacinto was sailing for Galveston at 1 P. M. They hoped to stop the entire twenty-five and take them to the District Attorney's office as witnesses in the white slave investiga-

There were so many women on the passenger list, however, that the detectives could not take the risk of detaining travelers who might prove to be respeciable. The hunters were about to abandon their quest when a gray haired. gray mustached man with a blond young woman on his arm hurrled to the gangplank a few minutes before sailing time. Detective McGlynn of Lieut, Dan "Hello, Chicago Tommy," he said.

WILLCOX AIDS SEE

It was the opinion of the Republican leaders and business men constituting Chairman Willcox's new advisory committee, which met for the first time yesterday in this city, that unless something unforeseen occurs in September and October nothing can also been enlisted as against 2,000 during the preceding four years.

"I had another dream for making the havy more truly American in spirit. It was that provision should be made by which a bright bluejacket might have an opportunity to become an Admiral. Congress has authorized the appointment of twenty-five smart enlisted as against 2,000 during the preceding four years.

Congress has authorized the appointment of twenty-five smart enlisted as against 2,000 during the preceding four years. tober nothing can stop the election of Charles E. Hughes next November.

Members of this committee made sugrestions with respect to remedying some defects in the campaign which are to be taken under consideration by Mr. Willcox. But upon one point—that Mr. Hughes is to be elected—all were agreed.

As Frank H. Hitchcock remarked:
"One of the reasons why we nominated Mr. Hughes was because we believed we could elect him. We still be-
